JOKE COMPETITION

Send in your jokes about Management Consultants (or even specifically about Wentworth Consultants!!). Again, every entry will win a prize, but the winner will be chosen by a committee of 747 people (by consensus of course). Here are two of ours for starters:

- 1) How many Wentworth Consultants does it take to change a light bulb?
Only one, but the light bulb must want to change!
- 2) Wentworth Consultants are running a big seminar on "Leadership and Change in Organisations". One of the attendees goes at lunchtime and buys a hot dog from a stand nearby. He gives the vendor a £10 note, but the man makes no move to give him the change. "Hey, where's my change?" he asks. The vendor replies "I would have thought you'd know - change comes from within".

ENTRIES: Please send your entries to us on the Quiz Answer Form by January 6th. If you struggle to answer some of the Quiz questions, our website might be of help, and given the coming recession, we may be open to bribery, especially by those who don't have English as a first language.

*Happy Christmas
from all at Wentworth Consultants*
